Next Generation and Unique Fantasy Action RPG System

We believe in a next-generation fantasy action RPG – we seek a fantasy action game made even better.

Introducing Tarnished. A fantasy action RPG made by a company that has been in the RPG business for over 20 years.

Feel rich with the extremely diverse weaponry and armor that you can equip, and feel powerful with the RPG battle system that has been greatly improved upon.

You can't experience the thrill of destroying huge monsters and taking advantage of great gear without the story woven into a world that is fully realized like a movie.

Perhaps the most distinguishing feature of Tarnished is its system of asynchronous online play, where two can directly connect and play together. In addition to this, you can meet with your ally party and cooperatively take quests together.
