Today, AutoCAD is one of the most widely used desktop CAD applications for commercial, industrial and architectural design work. AutoCAD software works on desktop, laptop and mobile devices such as smartphones and tablets. AutoCAD Professional is the most advanced, powerful, and most expensive version of AutoCAD. Developed for the professional draftsman, AutoCAD Professional includes many of the same features as AutoCAD LT. * * * How to use this section... NOTE: This section assumes that you are familiar with how to use the basic CAD functions provided by AutoCAD. AutoCAD Drawing Browser The AutoCAD Drawing Browser is a basic drawing tool that enables you to view drawings in a graphically enhanced environment. The Drawing Browser lets you open drawings created by other AutoCAD users and changes your current drawing to match a drawing in the browser. The Drawing Browser is accessible from the Windows taskbar. To open the Drawing Browser, right-click on the Windows taskbar, select 'Open Drawing Browser', and click OK. Right-click on the title bar at the top of the AutoCAD user interface (UI). Select 'Go to Drawing Browser'. Select 'Open Browser'. The AutoCAD Drawing Browser contains a set of drawing windows that display the drawings you have been working on. To view a drawing, simply open it in any of the drawing windows. You can use the Drawing Browser to browse the drawings created by other AutoCAD users. Before you can create or view drawings, you must first load a drawing into the Drawing Browser. To load a drawing, select 'Open Drawing'. The open drawing appears in the upper left corner of the drawing window. * * * Opening and Working With Drawings in the Drawing Browser Select 'Open Drawing'. The AutoCAD Drawing Browser displays a list of available drawings. To view a drawing, select it from the list of available drawings. The selected drawing opens in the drawing window. If you have previously been working on the drawing, you are returned to the working drawing window. To close the selected drawing, select 'Exit Drawing'. To close the Drawing Browser and return to the working drawing window, select 'Exit Drawing Browser'. * * * Opening Drawings The Drawing Browser can
